FIRST DISTRICT QUARTERLY MEETING OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE N. C. ASSOCIATION OF ORIGINAL FREE WILL BAPTISTS

The First District Quarterly Meeting of the General Conference of the N. C. Association of Original Free Will Baptists met at the Grace Free Will Baptist Church, Rocky Mount, N. C., on April 19, 1968.

For Christ opened the meeting by leading the congregation in a hymn, after which Rev. Gordon Sebastian led in prayer. Rev. Jim Mason, Home Missionary from the field of Orno, Maine was introduced to the body, and gave a report of his work there. Mrs. Glenn Hill, graduate of the Free Will Baptist Bible College, gave her testimony as to what the college meant to her. Brother Owen Thomas, member of the Board of Trustees for the college, gave a progress report on the expansion program of the college.

The Rev. Paul F. Hall, Associate Minister at the Liberty Church in Durham, N. C., was the featured speaker for the meeting. He delivered an inspiring message entitled, "Tending to God's Business." His Scripture was taken from Luke 19:11-27.

Following this, the Minutes and Treasurer's Report were approved as printed.

A motion was made and carried that the First District Quarterly Meeting send a $12.00 Representation Fee to the General Conference for our entries in the Youth Competition.

The Mount Calvary Church in Hookerton, N. C. invited the Quarterly Meeting to convene there at the next meeting. The invitation was accepted.

There were 7 Ministers, 11 Delegates, and 7 Churches registered for the meeting.

A motion was made and carried to receive Rev. Ronald Howland into the Quarterly Meeting.

Motion was made and carried to adjourn. Rev. Glenn Hill dismissed in prayer.
