REPORT OF BOARD OF EDUCATION.—The Board of Education submitted the following resolution: Resolved, That this Convention heartily endorse the work of Prof. J. E. Sawyer and his able corps of assistants in our Seminary at Ayden. That we hold up his hands and encourage him in every laudable way.

Educational Address.—Prof. J. E. Sawyer, principal of the Seminary was present and made a very impressive address. He dwelt upon the great importance of our sustaining our own institutions. He showed how we would lose out by neglecting a matter of such momentous consequence to us just now. It is a matter that claims our attention so much that to neglect it means dire calamity to us as a people.

A very energetic speech was made by Eld. L. L. Smith in behalf of the Ayden Seminary and its worthy principal. He urged that we should arouse to a sense of duty and work manfully for our school.

The names of Lloyd Vernon and B. M. Whitehurst were dropped from the Board and C. K. Dunn and L. L. Smith were elected to fill the vacancies.

Eld. R. F. Pittman, B. P. Parks, Eld. L. L. Smith and C. K. Dunn now constitute the Board.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.—“In submitting this, our report for 1914 to the State Convention, we have taken great pains to draft data of vital importance to the convention at large and to offer the best possible means for the construction and maintenance of a systematized organization that will be adequate to meet the demands of the cause in the State. The Sabbath School as a state-wide organization means vastly more than a sort of machinery for denominational diplomacy; and it must be constructed along modern educational lines, as well as religiously.

“To construct this system as it should be done, will require time, patience and perseverance and the co-operation of the Denomination.

“During the past year we have been able only to gather up from the surface, the fragmentary facts in relation to the condition of our schools, but we hope to be able in the year 1915 to offer a system that will be sufficient to meet the demands of the Convention.

“The Interdenominational Association in the state, with more than 7,256 schools and 539,237 Sunday School people is manned by some of the most able divines, educators and business men in our state. These figures show that about one-fourth of the people in our state are affiliated with the Sabbath School, and that there is yet magnificent opportunity to contribute in both time and means to this worthy cause.

“In affecting and maintaining a system for the State, the Board asks the hearty co-operation of the denomination at large through all its menial organizations. We ask and urge that our publishing company receive the hearty support of the denomination; and that our literature be used as far as practical.

“We insist that each pastor organize a Sabbath School in each of his churches now having no school and do his utmost to maintain them continuously, and that he report the organization to the State Secretary.

A. R. FLOWERS,
M. C. PRESCOTT,
L. L. SMITH."
