PROCEEDINGS

The Seventh Annual State Convention of the Free Will Baptist of North Carolina, convened with the church at White Hill, Beaufort county, Sept. 16, 1919. Services were opened by singing conducted by the choir of Davis church of Carteret county, commencing promptly at 11 a. m.

Prayer was offered by Elds. W. Lupton, E. T. Phillips and Sister Lizzie McAdams.

The introductory sermon was preached by Eld. W. B. Everett of Davis. Text Hebrews 13:20-21, "Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight through Jesus Christ," etc. It was a very earnest sermon, calling for a more devout and consecrated ministry abounding in good works for the Lord.

The convention adjourned one hour for dinner.

Thursday Evening

The president called the convention to order at 1:30 p. m. Song No. 68 from the book, "In His Praises," "Leaning Upon the Arms of Jesus". Bro. J. A. Hardy of the local church gave the ministers, delegates, and visitors a hearty welcome in behalf of the church and community at large. A hearty response to the welcome address was given by Eld. L. H. Wetherington of Dunn, N. C.

The president made some very plain and pertinent remarks relative to the purpose of the State Convention, stating that it was assembled for the advancement of the cause of Christ and the perpetuation of the principles of our church, which we hold are in accord with the teachings of our Lord and Master.

French Broad Association:—A. P. Rich.

On motion, a vote of welcome was extended to the ministers and delegates from the French Association. The hand of fellowship was extended by the entire body.

The president appointed the following as a Credential Committee. for this session of the Convention: Elds. L. H. Wetherington, J. W. Alford, and M. C. Prescott.

On motion a committee on Resolutions be appointed to investigate all matters coming before the body, and pass upon their fitness for consideration by the convention.

The following were appointed said committee on Resolutions: Elds. J. R. Wooten, D. A. Windham, and W. M. Howell.

At this point, prayer was offered by Rev. H. M. McAdams, of Oklahoma.

Bro. O. Taylor of the Cape Fear Conference presented a resolution for the consideration of the body, asking that each church raise a club for the support of the paper. Addresses were made on the subject by Elds. Prescott, L. H. Wetherington, A. T. Dawson, and others. Action was deferred until a later period.

Informal talks were made on several subjects in order that they might be brought before the minds of the ministers and delegates for their consideration before their final submission for ratification or rejection by the body. This action was by request of the president of the convention.

A Ministerial Relief committee was strongly urged by L. H. Wetherington who was followed by Sister McAdams, who strongly urged the adoption of the tithing system in our churches.

On motion a committee was appointed to draft a resolution favoring the relief committee. The following were appointed: L. H. Wetherington, J. W. Alford, H. M. and Lizzie McAdams, and R. V. Self.

A. T. Dawson, M. C. Prescott, and others spoke in the interest of the Orphanage.

Some very strong talks were made in the interest of having a Free Will Baptist Hymnal for general use in all our churches. D. A. Windham, F. F. Loftin, S. H. Stryon, H. M. McAdams and others showed the greatest of interest.

The Convention adjourned for the day by song, and prayer by Eld. J. E. Wooten.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

At the appointed hour for service, Rev. Thos. E. Beman a ministerial student of the Seminary of Ayden, delivered a most interesting discourse upon the Sunday school work, his subject being, "The Sunday School Work and the New Era of Humanity." He laid great stress upon the importance of making the best use of the early period of life, comparing it with the spring of the year, stressing how rapidly it passed away. The spirit and purpose of the Sunday School was fully, brought out showing that it was a spiritual agency that should receive the greatest attention. The influence and opportunities of the Sunday school were very impressibly forced upon the minds of his audience. Many of his striking points were illustrated by humorous anecdotes and apt illustrations, showing the resourcefulness and energy of the speaker. He dwelt upon the desirability of the Sunday school having the proper equipment with which to do its important task. His last topic was the New Era that is upon us and urged that we get together and make the Sunday school what it should be, a most wonderful agency in the salvation of souls and for the upbuilding of the church militant upon the earth. Being at the head of the Sunday school board there is but little doubt that this young, energetic and consecrated leader will be a great power in God's hands in bringing the Sunday school work among our people to a much higher state of efficiency than it is at present.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Opened at the appointed hour with song service conducted by Rev. A. H. Outlaw, who also conducted the devotional services.

The Credentials Committee report that they find the French Broad Association Orthodox and recommend that they be received into the body, and that the names of their ministers, and delegates in attendance be recorded. The hand of fellowship was extended to the brethren upon receiving the above report.

A letter was also read from the Jack's Creek Association, and after a recommendation from the Field Secretary, by a vote it was received into the State Convention.

Report of the Executive Committee

The Executive Committee of the State Convention, of the North Carolina Free Will Baptist, met in the Free Will Baptist church in the town of Ayden on Tuesday March 4, 1919. Rev. S. H. Styron, of Pine Level, N. C. President of the Convention, presided over the meeting.

Prayer was offered by E. T. Phillips, Secretary of the Convention.

On motion, the matter of locating the next session be left with the President, S. H. Styron and that he report the same through the Free Will Baptist as soon as the location is agreed upon

On motion, B. B. Deans be made chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Free Will Baptist Orphanage, located near Middlesex, N. C. He filling the vacancy caused by the demise of Eld. J. F. Casey, of Goldsboro, N. C.

On motion R. F. Pittman be elected trustee of the Orphanage from the Western Conference, to fill the vacancy caused by B. B. Deans having been made chairman of the board.

On motion, E. T. Phillips be made chairman of the Publicity Committee, a committee whose duty it is to set before the Free Will Baptist of N. C. the importance of the State Convention from every conceivable angle. He called to his assistance Elders R. F. Pittman and S. H. Styron. Others will also be called upon to aid in this essential work for the Convention.

On motion, the President be made chairman of the Program Committee and that he call to his aid such help as he may deem advisable.

On motion, B. P. Parks be placed on the Sunday School Board of the State Convention to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. F. Casey.

The meeting adjourned Sine die with a benediction by N. D. Wiggs.

S. H. STYRON, President.

E. T. PHILLIPS, Secretary.

P. S. Some weeks after the meeting of the Executive Committee it was decided to hold the next session of the Convention with the White Hill church, Beaufort county, Sept. 16, 17, 19, 1919.

Report of Field Secretary (Adopted)

As Field Secretary of the State Convention of Free Will Baptist of North Carolina I wish to leave this report with you:

Having been in close touch with a number of our Western Free Will Baptist of North Carolina. Thereby two of these bodies are asking to be admitted into the State Convention. I have written about 60 or 75 letters, and traveled about 700 miles in the interest of the State Convention. I have paid out $15.00. I have also come in touch with a few more associations, and I feel that with a little effort I will be able to get them to represent with us in a coming year.

L. H. WETHERINGTON.

Report of the Sunday School Board. (Adopted)

To the State Convention of Free Will Baptist of North Carolina:
Greetings:

In submitting this, our sixth report, to the State Convention of N. C., we are enabled to offer the most encouraging report of any heretofore. Numerically there has been an increase of fifteen per cent, in donations sixteen per cent.

We respectfully ask the different religious bodies among our people, to raise during the ensuing year a definite amount for the State Sunday School work, the amount of ten cents per capita.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. E. BEAMAN, Chm.

Resolution on Sunday School Work. (Adopted)

Resolved, that all Sunday Schools report in each session of the State Convention, with a letter separate and apart from the regular church letter, together with a donation, the donation to be used for State Sunday School work, and that said letter and contribution be sent direct to the Chairman of the Sunday School Board, on or before September 1, each year.

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. E. BEAMAN, Chm.

Great interest was shown in the Sunday School work and several interesting talks were made in advocacy of the above resolutions by T. E. Beaman, J. W. Alford, Luffy Toler, Sister McAdams and others.

Conventional Sermon at 11 A. M.

At the above stated hour, Eld. J. E. Sawyer opened the devotional services by reading a portion of God's word. Prayer was offered by Eld. J. C. Griffin, pastor of the St. Mary's church of New Bern. Eld. R. V. Self preached the Conventional sermon, using as a text Luke 13:34. "O Jersalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered they children together, as a hen doth gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not!" The large audience gave the minister the closest attention, as he emphasized God's willingness and readiness to bless souls. He spoke as a man sent from God, who gave evidence of having received power from on high. May he live long and do a great work for the Master.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Convention opened at 1:30 p. m. with music by the Davis choir.

Report of the Mission Board

The chairman of the Mission Board not being able to be present, a full report was not received. It can be stated, however, that no evangelist was put in the field to do general work during the year. The treasurer of the Mission Board, C. K. Dunn, being present, stated that he brought from last Convention $720.34, that he had received since $80.23, making a total of $800.57. He paid out during the year for various purposes $119.25, leaving a balance on hand from last year of $681.32.

Since there was paid into this Convention $145.95 for this purpose, the amount now on hand as a mission fund amounts to $827.27.

Statement by Secretary of Convention.

Report of H. M. and Lizzie McAdams Work as Evangelists

To our brethren and sisters in Christ:

Feeling led by the Holy Spirit, we will give in a written report our last year's work. We were present at the first State convention held at Reedy Branch church. At the time of the convention we were planning to go to the Barbadoes, Mission Field. This honorable body indorsed us and gave us an offering of $57.31, and then opened the way for us to visit our churches, an talk mission work, before sailing for said field. We received donations from the following sources: First church visited, Cedar Grove, offering $11.05; second, Saratoga, $24.77; third, Milbourney $20.35; fourth, King's X Roads, here we were rained out, but an offering of $2.00 was given, Siser Moore $2.00, David and Joe Tugwell $10.00; fifth, Otter's Creek, $15.50; sixth, C. K. Dunn, treasurer, $3.00; seventh miscellaneous funds $5.00; eighth, Kinston $8.56; ninth, Woodington $13.70; tenth, LaGrange $7.30; eleventh, White Hill $8.67; twelfth, New Bern $25.00; thirteenth, Ayden $5.80; fourteenth, N. G. Garris, $1.00; fifteenth, Mrs. Viola Turnage $2.00. Total $221.01. It was a great pleasure to visit these churches and their pastors and all Christian workers for the Master. We feel very grateful to our brethren for making it possible for us to visit so many of our churches. After visiting these churches, we held two revivals, and started another before sailing. The first one was with Winterville church. Had a splendid meeting. 13 were baptized and united with the church. The offering was $123.77. Our second revival was held with Hull Road church. Here we had another splendid meeting. Most of the work was done in the church. The offering was $124.22. We began a meeting with Grimsley church, but preached only a few nights. The offering was $26.00. Bro. J. C. Moye was pastor of all these churches. May God bless them all. We received a telegram while at Grimsley church that we could get passage from New York to Barbadoes, as we had been delayed on account of the war.

God gave us a safe voyage. On reaching the field, we did not find it as it had been represented. Mrs. Easterbrook received us cordially, but after looking over matters we found that the property was not Free Will Baptist property. She told us that she owned it all. She had three churches or church buildings in the country, two very good parsonages with them. In the city she had two churches; one stone building and one wooden building. All the country churches were stone. The home in town, which was used for an orphanage, was a stone building, large and comfortable. She owned 4 acres of land more or less and a nice rent cottage. She said that her will was made to Miss Julia Burdlong of Greenwich, Conn. And at Miss Burdlong's death, her will was made to the Woman's Missionary Society of Free Baptist, which had emerged into the union of Baptist and Free Baptist. We asked her to change her will to the Cooperative Association of Free Will Baptist. She said she thought Miss Burdlong would be willing to do that. But she said her work had always been non-denominational and she wanted it to remain so as long as she lived. She never wrote Miss Burdlong concerning the change so long as we were there. As for doctrine, Miss Esterbrook seemed sound. While they had never practiced feet washing, she said we could. She took her members in on probation and administered communion in a long robe. These two points were all in which she differed in. Her letter heads had several different denominations represented on them, including M. E., Baptist, and Christian Science, and this we knew nothing of till we went there.

We felt God's hand leading us to this field, we thought to preach to poor lost souls. But after reaching there we found it was to make an investigation of how funds would be used. And if all the property had been Free Will Baptist, we could not have worked with Miss Esterbrook. She is in a sad condition spiritually, and does things that we as Free Will Baptist could not indorse.

After fasting and prayer before God, we were led to return and give an account of our stewardship. We feel that our people ought to know what we have reported.

After returning we went to Greenwich, Conn., to talk with Miss Burdlong. She, too had written Miss Esterbrook concerning the work and wanted to turn it over to the Free Will Baptist, but Miss Esterbrook was not ready.

We feel like Miss Burdlong is a splendid Christian lady, ready to do the right thing.

On returning we soon ran out of missionary funds and had to use a little over $300.00 of our own money. We only received $22.64 while in Barbados and Hull Road church sent that. May God bless them.

In the month of April we began work in North Carolina. We have held eight revivals: (1) Sweet Gum Grove, a grand meeting, 23 converted, 13 baptized, offering $127.63. Winterville, 11 converted, 8 baptized, offering $28.48. New Bern, 34 converted, 29 united with the church, $134.75. Arthur, 41 converted, 32 additions, 29 baptized, $55.25. Sidney, 15 baptized, 22 additions, $117.00. Morehead City, 16 baptized, 27 additions, $144.48. Russels Creek, 11 baptized, 14 additions, $140.02. Otter's Creek, 6 additions, offering $52.00. We would like to have told much about these great spiritual meetings, but it would make our report exceedingly long.

We visited Winterville for two services. Had 6 converts and an offering of $10.05. We visited Sweet Gum Grove for two services, no conversions, an offering of $11.45. Also visited King's X Roads for two services, an offering of $8.45. This is a report of our year's work.

May God bless this great body of people, known as the Satte Convention of N. C. Free Will Baptist, is our prayer.

Yours for Jesus,

H. M. and LIZZIE McADAMS.

The above report was accepted with thanks and ordered printed in minutes.

Report of Orphanage Board (Adopted)

M. C. Prescott made a verbal report concerning the work of the Orphanage Home, stating that it was thought that the building would be completed by October the first. He further stated that there would be considerable expense in putting in the light plant and other necessities making the home ready for the reception of children. He very highly complimented the work of Eld. B. B. Deans. It is well known that B. B. Deans has been a great factor in building the Orphanage.

Eld. Prescott asked for the sentiment of the Convention as to going ahead and putting in the light plant complete or in part or waiting. The sentiment of the Convention was that the work be not retarded no more than could be avoided.

Resolution Regarding Thanksgiving Day Offerings

Resolved, That the clerk of the Executive Committee of the Orphanage, write to each pastor in the State, so far as he is able to secure their addresses, setting forth to them the work and needs of the Orphanage at Middlesex, and requesting him to present the same to his congregations, requesting them to meet at all their respective churches on Thanksgiving day and make a Thanksgiving offering in behalf of the orphanage, and forward the same promptly to the treasurer, W. J. Braxton, Winterville, N. C.

The above resolution by J. W. Alford was adopted.

The convention called off with benediction by W. R. Sawyer.

Report of Educational Board

To the North Carolina State Free Will Baptist Convention:—
Greeting:

We, your State Educational Board submit the following report:

We find from a careful investigation of many sections of the state, that the educational interest among our people is increasing. Many, who were only a few years ago opposing a classical education for Christian workers are now in readiness to support better institutions of learning. There are but very few of our young ministers who are not making an effort to prepare themselves for their work. Our State Chairman, Prof. A. R. Flowers, has made a canvass of many sections of eastern North Carolina and reports a growing interest in education among the masses, but we are yet much behind in meeting the demands that are being made on us as a denomination, and we have some definite plans to raise one hundred thousand dollars for the erection of a new school building. Of this amount about seventeen thousand dollars has been subscribed, leaving eighty-three thousand to be raised. This amount can be very easily raised in a few months if we will but do our bit. Our Seminary at Ayden has grown to where more than forty pupils were turned down last year for lack of dormitory room. The present opening is filling the school to its utmost capacity. The one greatest present need is a well equipped school where our young men and women can have a chance to prepare themselves for life and we call on the denomination to rally to the support of this cause.

BY THE COMMITTEE.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Convention called to order at 8:30 p. m. The secretary being absent, D. A. Windham was called upon to act as secretary pro tem.

A report was read by Bro. A. R. Flowers and remarks made on education carried.

A report of the Ministerial Standing committee of the Co-operative Association was read and discussed. (Carried).

Resolution by Bros. J. W. Alford and Thos. E. Beaman was read and discussed.

The resolution was in regard to an educational standard for ministers entering the conferences. The resolution was tabled indefinitely.

Prayer was offered by Bro. Quinton of S. C.

Educational Address by Prof. J. E. Sawyer

Following the prayer by Bro. Quinton, Prof. J. E. Sawyer, who was booked for an educational address, came forward and delivered one of those sound logical addresses on education for which he has long been noted.

He showed the great importance of education in North Carolina. He told of the great strides that had been made since the people of the commonwealth had been aroused to the importance of culture and intellectual development. He made it very clear, that while some had from time claimed that we were too poor to educate, the real fact was that we were too poor not to educate. With great earnestness and clearness he showed that money invested in brains was very advantageous from a material standpoint. But from a moral and spiritual standpoint, the need of intellectual culture was still greater. What should claim our attention more than the children of our homes upon which the future weal or woe of our home and national life depends. The address was a splendid effort and we trust that it will be as seed sown upon good soil that will bring forth an abundant harvest for righteousness and higher living.

Following the address of Prof. Sawyer, Eld. W. B. Nobles em.

phasized the splendid work that was being done at Cedar Grove church in Martin county. A collection was taken for this mission point amounting to $21.48.

THURSDAY MORNING

The convention opened at 9 o'clock. Eld. F. L. Harris read the 116 Psalm.

Song service was led by Bro. Floyd F. Loftin. Prayer by Floyd L. Harris.

ADDRESS BY THE PRESIDENT

According to the program the president, Rev. S. H. Styron, of Pine Level, N. C., at the appointed hour, 11:15, addressed the Convention

His theme was: "The Needs of Our Church."

He dispelled the illusion that we are without a system in our church. In the Free Will Baptist church in North Carolina, we have a system. In the State Convention we have provided a complete system of business. Then, said the speaker, it is not system that we need. Suppose that no water was to flow down the Tar river which empties into and supplies the Pamlico river, and that other tributaries should likewise fail to respond. Is it not evident that the mighty river would dry up and its bottom crack for want of moisture. The channel and outline of the river would be in perfect order but the river would fail to function as a river. Likewise all our systems and rules, however appropriate and timely they may be, will not be found to be the panacea for all our troubles.

What is it then, that we need? It is MEN, high minded men. This is what constitutes a nation or a church. Men who are filled with the spirit of the Master. Men of faith like Abraham of old, who when told to get out from among his kindred and people, took God at his word and went. Men who are living above the fog of worldly entanglements. Men who mount up like the eagle and live in a pure atmosphere. Men spirit filled, whose tongue has been touched with a live coal from off God's altar. Men who are not looking for easy places that have been made so by the labors and toils of our fathers, who went forth without money and price and laid the foundation for our great and growing denomination. Our church needs a ministry and a laity that glories in nothing save Christ and Him crucified.

A more appropriate and timely address could hardly have been given. Like an expert archer, every arrow from his bow seemed to hit its mark. The speaker appealed with fervency to the needs of our various institutions in a way that should strike a responsive cord in the hearts of every true, loyal Free Will Baptist in our state or elsewhere.

Prayer was offered by Eld. N. D. Wiggs of Columbia, N. C.

THURSDAY EVENING

After one hour for refreshments, the Convention met at 1:30 p. m. Song service by the Davis choir.

Hymn Book Question

The importance of a standard hymn book for general use in our churches was again considered. The following committee were appointed to investigate to the fullest extent and report as early as possible: R. F. Pittman, F. F. Loftin, D. A. Windham.

Resolution for Church Extension. (Adopted)

Resolved, That we carry a "Church Extension Fund".

Respectfully submitted,

THOS. E. BEAMAN.

The following Church Extension Board was appointed:

J. C. Griffin, E. C. Morris, A. T. Dawson, Treasurer.

Resolution as to Young People's Literature

In order to get our Young People's Society, known as the Mutual Endeavor Union of the Free Will Baptist church, in shape for work, and in order to get our literature for the same,

Be it Resolved, That a committee of six be appointed to work on literature for the year 1920. The same to consist of 52 lessons, prepared in order, one for each week in the year, and that those engaged in the work be paid out of the funds, having been raised for this society.

Submitted,

S. H. STYRON.

The above resolution was adopted and the following named to get out the work: Mrs. Alice Lupton, New Bern, N. C., Chairman, J. C. Griffin, J. E. Sawyer, S. H. Styron, A. R. Flowers, and Miss Georgia Cayton.

Resolutions and Amendment (Adopted) Treatise and Discipline

Re it Resolved,

First. That this State Convention appoint a committee of one, whose doctrine is unquestioned, to prepare a treatise on our faith.

Second. That he shall call to his aid such help as he shall need.

Third. That we require our school to use the same in connection with our Theological course.

Respectfully submitted,

D. W. ALEXANDER.

The above resolutions were adopted and the following amendment submitted by Eld. J. W. Alford was appended to the said resolutions.

Amendment: On motion, we amend the resolutions of D. W. Alexander, by calling forth the work of the committee on the Revision of the Discipline, completed and adopted a few years ago, and have same published in connection with the Treatise authorized by said resolutions.

On motion, the present Constitution and By-Laws of the State Convention be repudiated.

On motion, we accept the Constitution and By-Laws of the Original State Convention with the addition of an amending section in Art. 5, which shall read as follows: "Amendments to this Constitution and By-Laws shall be effected only by a two-thirds vote of this Convention. Said amendments shall be on the table at least twenty four hours before the vote is taken.

On motion, we accept the work of our Recording Secretary, in receiving and recording the reports from the various churches, union meetings, conference associations, etc., and return to him a vote of thanks for his faithful and careful work.

Resolution in Regard to Manual

The following resolution was passed at the State Convention held last year at Reedy Branch church, Pitt Co.,

Resolved, That the State Convention of Free Will Baptist of North Carolina recognize the necessity of a Minister's Manual for

THURSDAY NIGHT SERVICE

On Thursday night Sister Lizzie McAdams preached. She in a very fervent and earnest manner laid great stress upon the iniquity of the church and especially the ministry. She advocated a more consecrated way of living among those who claimed to be ambassadors for the Lord. A large audience gave her the closest attention and we trust that great and lasting good will result from her devout and earnest discourse.

P. S.—The Executive Committee of the State Convention will meet in due time and attend to whatever business they may deem important for the success of this great organization, known as the State Convention of North Carolina. Among other things they will select the place for the next annual meeting. Name the one who is to preach the introductory sermon, etc.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON OBITUARIES

We your committee on obituaries beg leave to submit the following:

During the past year Providence has seen fit to call from labor to reward five of our fellow ministers as far as our knowledge leads us.

Their deaths occurred in the following order:

J. F. Hill

Eld. J. F. Hill was born in Wayne county in May 1847, and died Dec. 8, 1918. He began to preach at the age of twenty five and served churches continuously for forty five years.

He was a pioneer preacher in the Cape Fear Conference. It is said of him that he traveled more miles, preached more sermons, and organized more churches than any minister in the Cape Fear Conference.

Surely he will hear the welcome plaudit, "Enter thou into the joys of thy Lord. "He turned many to righteousness and will shine as the stars forever and ever. Bro. Hill was a good citizen and reared a family of four children, who are brilliant examples of his worthy training.

J. F. Casey

Eld. J. F. Casey was born in Sept. 1872; and died Dec. 31, 1918.

He began to preach at the age of thirty four and preached twelve years. He was a faithful servant of the Most High. He was a very active conscientious pastor and labored for the salvation of souls earnestly, but without ostentation. Was organizer and promoter of Free Will Baptist church in Goldsboro and was ever highly interested in its welfare. At the time of his death, caused by pneumonia followed by a severe attack of influenza; he was pastor of four churches. He leaves a widow and three children, who reside in the town of Goldsboro.

E. D. Hathway

Eld. E. D. Hathway, a native of Pitt County, was born in the year 1846, and died at his home near Gum Swamp church, on Feb. 2, 1919. He was seventy-three years old at the time of his death. He had spent the major part of those years in the faithful service of Him whom he delighted to serve. He was a faithful pillar in the Gum Swamp church. We do not know accurately how long he had been preaching, but he served several churches as pastor for many years. Bro. Hathway was a sturdy, conscientious, devout Christian in his every day walk before men, and ever exhibited a commendable spirit. Many years ago he married Miss Lydia A. Carson, and to them were born five boys and one girl. He was a noble citizen and reared a honorable family who survive him. His funeral was preached by Eld. T. H. Barnhill and he is sleeping in the family burying ground.

J. W. Cox

Eld. J. W. Cox died at his home in Wake County, April 7, 1919.

We have but little data concerning Bro. Cox, but we know that he must have been somewhere over seventy years of age. Think he joined our church from the Missionary Baptist. He was a staunch Free Will Baptist and ever after he joined the church of his choice, he ever earnestly contended for the faith once delivered to the saints. He was a man in former days of great physical strength and had a voice that could be heard when he was preaching at a distance. He used this powerful voice in defense of what he believed to be sound doctrine. He pastored several churches in the Western Conference and did considerable preaching upon the border of our connection and frequently met stern opposition, but without wavering.

Of his social life or family relations, we know but little, but he left the evidence of being one who served his Master faithfully therefore his reward will be glorious.

Henry Cunningham

Eld. Henry Cunningham, a native of Lenoir County, died at his home near Deep Run church, not far from Pink Hill, N. C., on Monday August 11, 1919, and was laid to rest in the family burying ground near his home on the 12th. of August. He had been preaching since he was 20 years old. He was admitted to the Conference as an ordained minister when both the Central and Eastern and Western were all in one. From an old mite we find it was when the Conference was held at Hull Riad church near the year 1870. He was a great landmark in Lenoir county. Perhaps more people knew Uncle Henry, as he was called than any other man in the county. He was a veteran of the Confederacy and was with Lee when he surrendered at Appomattox. He held many offices of honor and trust at the hands of the people who were devoted to him. He reared a large and honorable family of sons and daughters. But his greatest service was as a minister of God, whom he served day and night with all the earnestness of his mighty soul. He traveled over a large territory and organized many churches. The numbers that he received into the churches that he pastored were numerous. He pastored many churches, attended at marriages and funerals to a degree almost unsurpassed in this country. Was often made Moderator at the conferences and Union meeting that he attended.

He fought a good fight and kept the faith, hence there is a brilliant crown for him, bedecked with many stars at God's right hand.

Section 5. Each league shall meet once a month, and shall delegate through the Woman's Mission Society, or by delegate appointed by the league to the annual Convention of the S. S. W. H. M. and L. W. L. Convention

Originally approved by R. F. Daugherty, Chairman, J. T. Linton, A. E. Rouse, J. W. Alford, Secretary Executive Committee; J. L. Scott

The Superintendents of the various Sunday schools throughout the Eastern Conference District are earnestly requested to cooperate with us in this work, and are asked to have the secretaries of each school make an itemized report of their work for the year, and submit same at each annual Convention, together with as large a donation as possible, said donation to be used for same purpose as that of the Woman's Home Mission Society, and Little Worker's League.

Said reports from each Sunday school and Society to be as follows:

Number of members enrolled..... Number of new members during year..... Average attendance..... Amount of finance raised for all purposes..... and in addition, each Sunday school will give number of officers, teachers and classes. We are especially asking the co-operation of the ministers of the Eastern Conference in this important work, as we realize very forcibly that unless we have their assistance, our work will be a failure, so rally to the cause and help us to live up to our motto, "WE CAN DO THINGS IF WE WILL."—Phil. 4:13.

Yours for more efficient service,

ALICE E. LUPTON, Pres.

CHURCH COVENANT

Having given ourselves to God, by faith in Christ, and adopted the Word of God as our rule of faith and practice, we now give ourselves to one another, by the will of God, in this solemn covenant. We promise by His grace to love and obey Him in all things; to avoid all appearance of evil; to abstain from all sinful amusements and unholy conformity to the world; from all sanction of the use and sale of intoxicating beverages; and to "provide things honest in the sight of all men."

We agree faithfully to discharge our obligations in reference to the study of the Scriptures, secret prayer, family devotions and social worship and by self-denial, faith and good works endeavor to "grow in grace and the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ." We will not forget the assembling of ourselves together for church conference, public worship and the observance of the ordinances of the Gospel, nor fail to pay according to our ability for the support of the church, of its poor and all its benevolent work. We agree to accept Christian admonition and reproof with meekness and to watch over one another in love endeavoring to "keep the unity of the Spirit" in the bonds of peace; to be careful of one another's happiness and reputation, seek to strengthen the weak, encourage the afflicted, admonish the erring, and as far as we are able, promote the success of the church and of the Gospel.

W will everywhere hold Christian principles sacred and Christian obligations and enterprises supreme, counting it our chief business in life to extend the influence of Christ in society, constantly praying and toiling that th Kingdom of God may come and His will be done on earth as it is in heaven.

To this end we agree to labor for the promotion of educational and denominational enterprises, support of missions, the success of the Sabbath schools and evangelistic efforts for the salvation of souls and conversion of the world. And may the God of peace sanctify us wholly and preserve us blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
