Harris, of Kinston, responded in a very satisfactory manner, giving the community the assurance of the thanks of the delegates, ministers, and visitors for their hearty reception.

The president of the Convention made some very pointed and timely remarks. He strongly insisted upon the body the importance of remembering that they were in attendance, not merely for a social good time, which of course they would enjoy, but that they had met to do business for the King. He stated that he would know no person above another in his rulings and begged that all that was transacted should be done in an orderly, parliamentary way, and that due regard should be paid to the feelings of each in attendance.

TUESDAY NIGHT.

After devotional services and a line of splendid song service conducted by Elder. W. W. Cuthrell, Miss Nancy Dail, of Ayden, delivered a splendid address upon the subject of Co-operation. Most emphatically, and impressively did Miss Dail show the great necessity of co-operation among our people at the present time. The importance of every member of every organization working together in perfect harmony, each functioning for the general good of all was portrayed in the most vivid and effective manner. Especially did she stress the home life and the home as the basis of everything that is essentially vital to the safety and progress of the community, the state and nation. With special emphasis did she present the paramount importance of all our people coming together as one man, rising in our might and with and by the power and help of the Almighty at this crucial hour, opening our eyes and seeing that the most important object now before our people is seeing that our College is built and equipped for the safety, life and prosperity of our cause.

Let us quote from her splendid address these words: "Let us get busy all working together for one common cause, under the leadership of Him, who is able at all times to shield us from harm, upholding the watchword, "Co-operation." Again, "Co-operation knows no selfishness but lives and works for others." Co-operation on the part of his co-workers together with His Spirit ruling and directing the undertaking means success."

It was evident from the many nuggets of wisdom and splendid logic that was so charmingly woven into the fiber of her address that the speaker was electrified with the great need of all our people becoming more strongly united and blended together for the future progress of our Zion. Then from the enthusiasm that was created by this address may we go forward.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

Convention met at 9:30. An interesting and helpful prayer service of thirty minutes was conducted by Elder W. B. Nobles, of Winterville. A fervent prayer was offered by Elder A. B. Utley.

The collection amounted to $81.42.

Report of Church Extension Board.—(Adopted.)

We have held but one meeting during the year, at which time applications for aid were considered and the following places were helped. Belhaven, Bridgeton, Pine Level, and Elizabeth City.

At the above meeting we agreed to donate 50 per cent and lend 50 per cent to all churches asking aid. That is if we could let a church have $50.00 we asked a note for $25.00 signed by the clerk and pastor of said church.

We are proud of the response from many of the churches in aiding the work. We have houses of worship that we could not have had had it not been for our work and the assistance that we have received. We could have done much more if all the churches would have responded to our call.

J. C GRIFFIN, Chairman.

Report of State Mission Board.—(Adopted.)

Your Board begs to report that we have not been able to put a man in the field as evangelist, but we have used the funds in the way of a loan to publish our song book, which is filling its mission of song among our people. We recommend that the Board put a man in the field as early as possible.

Respectfully submitted,

J. C. GRIFFIN, Chairman.

Following the report of the State Mission Board, the Patterson sisters of the Rock Fish Conference, deaf and dumb mutes, rendered a selection in a very impressive manner by the sign method.

Address by Rev. T. O. Hearn, D. D.

At the 11 o'clock hour on Wednesday, the Convention was entertained and instructed for one hour and twenty minutes by Dr. Hearn, a returned missionary from China. He came to the Convention through the solicitation of Elder A. H. Outlaw, pastor of the Morehead City church, and Chairman of the Foreign Mission Board. The Doctor told of his various experiences in the land of China. Over fifteen years ago he was impressed through a missionary and after taking the matter to the Lord in prayer he and his wife decided to go to this land of darkness and carry them the light of the Gospel of the Son of God. Told of his feelings when sailing to this benighted region in which there are over 400,000,000 of people who know but very little about the Christ. He first had to learn the language which is very difficult but which can be mastered fairly well in two years by the average English scholar. Told of the ignorance and superstition of these people, but found that they were very responsive to the true teaching. To see them in their miserable condition was enough to impress any one to be willing to help them to learn of the Christ. He told of the eagerness of the people to hear. How he went from place to place and made lasting impressions upon the natives. He explained the manners and customs of the people, and they being our antipodes it sees that they do everything different from us. In the evening he answered any question that was propounded to him and imparted some information that will doubtless inspire our people to the all important fact of putting greater stress upon the great commission of our Lord to his disciples to go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

Convention opened at 1:30 with a song service conducted by Elder R. N. Hinnant. Prayer by Elder L. H. Wetherington. A duet was rendered by Elder R. F. Pittman and Bro. F. F. Loftin.

Three small girls from the Orphanage at Middlesex sang a very pretty song.

Report of the Young People's Work.

To the honorable President and body composing the State Convention of North Carolina.

As Chairman of the Young People's work in this State I hereby submit the following report for the year ending September 12th, 1922.

Having been sent to Nashville, Tenn., last year by the State Convention, to confer with Rev. J. L. Welch, chairman of the same work in that State, with the purpose of drawing up a Constitution and By-Laws whereby the Free Will Baptist League work might be governed, together with instructions to submit same to the Cumberland Association for its approval or rejection. I beg to say that I complied with the instructions given, and the Cumberland Association approved of the work, recommending that said Constitution and By-Laws be submitted to the General Conference in its next session held with Marshall, N. C., Free Will Baptist church, in May, 1922.

The General Conference adopted the work of the committee, with slight amendments, and also adopted important resolutions relative to the Young People's work in general.

I have organized seven Leagues during the past year, and am receiving a goodly number of inquiries from time to time regarding the work.

I am asking this honorable body to put in motion some plan whereby we may be able to do a greater work for the promotion of this important cause.

We further request that this Convention make an earnest effort to get the pastors of the various churches in North Carolina to interest their people in behalf of this great work.

Respectfully,

ALICE E. LUPTON, Chairman.

The above report was adopted and Constitution and By-Laws accepted, which will appear in this minute.

A telegram was received from Elder J. L. Welch, of Nashville, Tenn., a member of the Cumberland Association of his state, stating that owing to the illness of his father-in-law he would not be able to attend this meeting. The Convention was very sorry that Elder Welch could not be with us as he has on many occasions been a great help in our counsels.

Upon receiving the telegram from Bro. Welch, a motion was immediately passed that a telegram of sympathy be returned at once.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

Devotional services were conducted by Elder H. LeRoy Harris, pastor of Kinston Free Will Baptist church.

The speaker of the evening was Hon. C. M. Johnson, of Goldsboro, N. C. From what we have been able to gather this address was one of the prominent features of the Convntion. His subject was, "The Importance of Christian Education." It is not literary training so much that the world needs today, but Christian culture is the supreme need of the hour. Christ must be held up in the home, the church and the nation. While inheritance has much to do with the life of every individual and the character of the individuals of today will play a very important part in the lives of the coming generations; yet there is an environment that surrounds us today that is corrupting our youth and filling their lives with a poison worse than the sting of the deadly asp. Hence the great need of Christian training that our homes and land may be saved from the deadly malestrom to which it is fast hastening. A want of the Christ in the lives of the people has marked the downfall of the greatest nations of antiquity, and our own people should take warning lest the deadly perils of irreligion, fanaticism, Darwinism and sinful indulgences, cause the God of heaven to visit us with sore punishments.

We can not too much stress the importance of the Free Will Baptist denomination erecting for themselves a great bulwark of defense and help by building a Christian college for the culture of our young people. Many of our people by rejecting to aid in this great work, are saying we do not need a college. We are satisfied to let our young people remain without the leverage that Christian culture gives them, or we are willing to support them in other colleges where evolution and other polluting ideas are advanced. Willing for our people to remain at the bottom of the ladder and forver be hewers of wood and drawers of water for others. God help our own people to see upon what sandy ground they are building. Help us to arouse and build that we may as a people and by His help occupy the place in the world that God destined that we should fill.

THURSDAY MORNING.

Convention opened at 9:30 conducted by Elder H. R. Faircloth. A number of the brethren testified that they were walking in the straight and narrow road that leads to glory, and asked an interest in the prayers of others.

Report of The Auxiliary Convention of the Central Conference.

Sister Lillie Smith, of Greenville, made a very encouraging talk in the interest of auxiliaries that were being organized by the ladies of our denomination in the various churches. She stated that they were in the beginning of what she trusted would be a great help in the building up of our cause. She made a report of what the auxiliary was now doing and had just accomplished. Her report which follows was adopted by the Convention:

Ladies Aid Societies organized 2; Little Workers' Leagues organized 2; donated to the college campaign $125.00; to Extension Board $25.00; to Orphanage $35.00; to Bro. J. R. McCaskey $33.21. paid to organizer $8.50; contribution to State Convention $5.00. Mrs. Lillie Smith delegate.

Report of Sunday School Board.

We desire to call attention in this report to some very encouraging facts which prove that our Sunday schools are making rapid progress. They have made the following gain this year: In number of schools, 20 per cent; in the enrollment of pupils, 25 per cent; in efficiency 20 per cent. There is much and lasting good that can be accomplished in this work, and we are urging our people to do their very best in promoting the work in their respective schools.

(Signed) E. C. MORRIS, Chairman.

THOS. E. BEAMAN, General Secretary.

The report was adopted.

An Advisory Resolution. (Adopted.)

Resolved, That this Convention advise all churches belonging to said convention, that should any church allow any minister belonging to the Co-operative Association to do work in said church, then the convention will feel itself compelled to disown said church of churches and will also instruct the conferences to which said church or churches belong to take similar action.

THOS. E. BEAMAN,
J. W. ALFORD,
D. W. ALEXANDER,
E. C. MORRIS,

The 11 o'clock hour having been set apart for a sermon by Elder R. V. Self, the business of the convention was suspended for devotional services. Prayer was offered by Elder A. R. Flowers. A duet was rendered by Elder R. F. Pittman and Bro. F. F. Loftin. Eld. R. V. Self then proceeded to preach the conventional sermon. His theme being, "Our Every Duty as a People." He referred to the Master in the Garden of Gethsemane, where he found the words, "He went a little further." Using these words as a text he preached a powerful sermon filled with the greatest earnestness and in which he advised with all his soul, the importance of complete consecration to the will of our Lord. He advised the convention to go a little further with the great work they had started, and ever press forward with renewed vigor and energy. He believed in a full and complete work. That we should take the Book as our guide. Be sure to give the tenth for the support of the Gospel. When we get the people to give their hearts to God it will not be a struggle to build the college. It will not be a struggle to support our orphan home. We should lay everything upon the altar. Throw ourselves wholly and unreservedly into the great work of the Master. Elder Self told of staying by his dying mother and how he thanked God for such a mother. He had been at work for his Master and his cup had been made to run over with joy. God had given him many precious souls for his hire for the past few years. He made a wonderful impression upon the well filled house, and the Spirit seemed to pervade the entire assembly. The services closed with a hymn and a general handshake, and waving of handkerchiefs in praise to the Lord.

At the conclusion Elder W. W. Skellett, of Connewango, N. Y., was received into the fellowship of Little Rock church, by the pastor, Elder. S. H. Styron and a vote of the church.

dred, and proceed to get out another 500 copies as quickly as necessary.
