PROCEEDINGS

The Twenty-second Annual Session of the State Convention of the Free Will Baptist of North Carolina, convened with the church at Micro, Johnston County, N. C. on Tuesday Sept. 11 at 10 o'clock A. M. The Convention was opened with song: "Foot Prints of Jesus." The devotional exercises were led by Rev. W. M. Ferrell, who offered a very earnest prayer for the success of the Convention.

A testimonial meeting was conducted for ten minutes in which many of the brethren gave evidence of their faith in Christ and a determination to press forward to the goal that was set before them.

Rev. R. N. Hinnant of Micro led the song service through the entire three days session of the Convention, exhibiting the greatest interest.

Rev. H. R. Faircloth led in a fervent prayer followed by the song, "When the Roll is Called up Yonder."

The president of the Convention made some very appropriate remarks referring briefly to the names of some noted Free Will Baptist ministers who have passed to the beyond during the past two decades, namely; P. T. Lucas, Frank Casey, Doc. and C. M. Johnson, R. V. Self, B. B. Deans, A. B. Peavy, Galis Little, J. R. McCaskey. These names are on banners, each name separate behind the chancel in the splendid auditorium of the church. He gave a brief eulogy of each name and cited to them as worthy of our imitation in the Christian warfare.

Rev. W. L. Moretz of the French Broad Association spoke of the growth and development that is being carried on in the mountain section of the state. He like many others who attended the convention, spoke in the most complimentary terms of the elegant church building that the brethren of Micro church have erected at a cost of several thousand dollars.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. C. J. Harris of Greenville, N. C. Subject: The Great Commission; the power behind it; and the great company of those that published it. Of course his subject was from the words of the Master as recorded in Mark 16: 15, 16 and in other of the Gospels: "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned." Every part of the subject was fully developed and all admitted that the subject though a great one was handled in a masterly way, making apparently a very profound impression. The sermon was followed by the song, "I'll go where you want me to go etc." Benediction by J. C. Griffin.

TUESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention opened with song: The Wondrous Story. Prayer by Rev. Henry Melvin. This was followed by a duet by Mrs. N. D. Wiggs and Mrs Hubert Banks, "List to the Voice of the Saviour." Devotional services led by Rev. N. D. Wiggs with Scripture reading and prayer.

The names of the following visiting brethren from other states were enrolled: Rev. M. L. Hollis of Red Bay, Ala.; Rev. Rufus Hyman of the Salem Association of Ala.; Rev. E. B. Joyner of the South Georgia Association of Georgia. Each responded in a very satisfactory manner giving a brief sketch of the bodies from which they came.

Bro. R. P. Johnson.

TUESDAY NIGHT

A number of songs were sung in the opening of the service led by Rev. R. N. Hinnant. Scripture reading by J. C. Griffin.

The devotional services were conducted in a very impressive manner by Rev. H. R. Faircloth, who in the absence of Rev. W. R. Coats who was assigned the subject: "The Office Work of the Holy Spirit," took the subject in hand and showed very plainly many of the officers of the Holy Spirit regarding both the saint and the sinner. A large audience was in attendance and the benediction was pronounced by the Rev. J. C. Griffin.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Convention assembled at 9:30 o'clock. The opening song was "Faith of our Fathers." The devotional services were led by Rev. W. K. Jordan of Durham, N. C. Who read the 103 Psalm. Prayer was offered by Rev. J. K. Ruffin of Bailey, N. C.

A goodly number of ministers and delegates were enrolled that were not present on the first day, but the clerk has combined the names of all the ministers and delegates in one place, so they will be found on the first pages of the minutes.

The president appointed Elds. W. R. Williams, L. H. Wetherington and Henry Melvin a finance committee for this session.

The Convention sang at this time, "The Way of the Cross leads home."

At this time Jesse P. Barrow of Chicago, Ill., came forward and made some remarks regarding his taking charge of a Bible School at Smithfield, N. C. as has been previously mentioned. His talk at this time was very limited.

A quartet from the Middlesex Orphanage composed of four small girls came forward and rendered some very impressive songs. Miss Zella Frances Brewer presided at the piano.

A strong plea for the Orphanage was made by Rev. J. W. Alford of Kenly, N. C. He emphasized the fact that 25cts. per head from the members of the Free Will Baptist Church in North Carolina would meet all the requirements of the Home and soon liquidate all the claims against the institution. This would pay off the $1200.00 indebtedness and pay the faculty in full for their services to the present time. He insisted upon loyalty by all the pastors and laymen. Following the talk a collection was taken for the Home amounting to $66.78.

The reports of the different meetings of the Executive Committee were read by the Secretary and approved by the body as follows:

Eld. L. H. Wetherington, a member of the committee, appointed to go to the Orphanage and investigate certain complaints made report for the committee as follows:

Committee's Report

We your comm. appointed by the Exec. Comm. of the State Convention to investigate certain allegations and complaints made by certain brethren at last session of the first Union Meeting of the Western Conference beg to submit the following report:

We, the undersigned, met at the Home on Jan. 17th, at 10:30 o'clock, and we found the general condition of the Home to be excellent, taking into consideration the handicap under which our Supt. has been forced to labor. We recognize the fact that there are many improvements that could be made, if he had the funds with which to make them.

We have also compared the operation of the Home from a financial standpoint with other like institutions, and find the same very commendable; our Home being operated at a much less per capita cost.

We recognize the great need for more milk cows, and we recommend that the Board make arrangements for the purchase of at least five more good milkers.

We find 17 hogs in good condition for pork, and the balance in fair shape for the winter.

We also inspected all cows at the Home, and find them to be in as good condition as the average.

From our findings here today, we your committee, do heartily recommend the working of your honorable Board and Supt.

W. M. FERRELL,
M. E. TYSON,
NATHANIEL KIRBY,
L. H. WETHERINGTON, Comm.

On motion we adopt the above report.

Bro. Everett spoke for a few minutes very feelingly pleading for unity and for the importance of presenting a solid front.

Minutes read and approved.

On motion the committee adjourn. Prayer by T. E. Beaman.

Report of Credentials Committee (Adopted).

The Credential Committee beg to report that there has arisen, a question concerning the orthodoxy of the Buncombe County Association; and for lack of witnesses and proof, we recommend that this convention appoint a committee of three to look into the question, try to straighten out the matter, and report to the next session of this Convention, or to any meeting of the Executive Committee of this Convention.

H. R. FAIRCLOTH,
J. W. ALFORD,
M. E. TYSON, Credential Committee.

✓ The above named committee were appointed by the president to make investigation demanded in the report.

"I will sing the wondrous story; and "When the roll is called up yonder" was sung by the audience.

A special message in song was delivered by Miss Johnnie Watson of Pine Level, accompanied by Mrs. S. H. Styron at the piano, and Mr. Harvey Creech violinist. This was followed by a duet, Miss Johnnie Watson, soprano; Miss Bertha Rose, contralto; with Mrs. R. N. Hinnant, pianist. Song: "Take your burden to the Lord and leave it there."

✓ Rev. J. C. Griffin spoke a few minutes with reference to Rev. M. L. Hollis of Red Bay, Ala. who followed and preached. Subject: "The Race of Life." Text: Heb. 12:1, 2. Rev. Hollis indeed preached a wonderful sermon. The one who enters this race must be free of all encumbrances. The essentials equipments for this race are (1) hope; (2) faith; (3) courage; (4) patience. He must have on sandals and he must have food for his journey, and he should never take his eyes off the goal, which is Christ Jesus our Lord. Bro. Hollis seems to be a man filled with the Holy Spirit. He has a fine delivery, and seems to have a burning zeal for the kingdom of God. It is reported of him that he has baptist several thousands persons in the course of his ministry. His sermon was received with marked interest by a vast audience.

Following the sermon and a great handshake extended to Bro. Hollis, the benediction for the morning hour was given by the venerable J. H. Worley of Selma, N. C.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

The afternoon session opened with the song, "The fight is on" etc. A most touching message in song was rendered by Miss Bertha Rose of Goldsboro. Song: "Follow Me."

Rev. J. W. Alford gave a very short eulogy upon the lives of some of our departed heroes, something similar to what was said by Eld. Styron on the first day. He spoke very highly of the lives of Elds. P. T. Lucas, Frank Casey, R. V. Self, A. B. Peavy, Doc. Johnson and Cyrus M. Johnson, B. B. Deans, Calis Little, J. R. McCaskey. He spoke freely of how they used their lives for the glory of God and the good of humanity. Though dead they yet speak. Their names are memorialized in the Micro Church.

✓ Special prayer was made for Sister Georgia Frost Barnes, the direct survivor of the lamented Eld. W. H. Frost. Sister Barnes was at the time of the convention in Duke Hospital for an operation.

Devotional services were conducted by Rev. W. L. Jernigan. He spake of leaving undone what we should have done. He stressed the sin of omission as being very grievous in the sight of our Master.

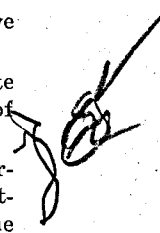

Bro. D. W. Parker was elected on the Orphanage Board to succeed himself.

REPORT OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE ORPHANAGE

To the N. C. State Convention of Free Wil Baptist, Greetings: The Orphanage Board presents a summary of the years activities which we hope will meet with your approval.

During the year the Board has held six meetings, one at the State Convention and five at the Home, and transacted the various items of business that came to their attention regarding the Home.

There has been thirty-one applications presented to the Board during the year, ten were admitted, sixteen rejected, four pending, and one waiting to be called. There has been six released from the Home during the year. All of this number have become of age. It is our policy to stay in touch with all the children that leave the Home for any reason, in order that we may know just how they are being cared for, and to let them know that the Institution is still interested in them and loves them.

The Health condition at the Home for the past year has been excellent. We have had a few cases that required medical attention and had only one that required hospital attention. Dr. E. C. Powel of Middlesex is the family physician. He has never presented the Home with a bill. This is indeed a great gift, and we are very grateful to Dr. Powell for his service. Dr. Barnes and Dr. Blackshear of Wilson, N. C. have contributed largely to the Institution, in that of rendering service without compensation. Dr. Massey of Zebulon has also rendered his service at very little cost. We greatly appreciate each and every favor they have shown.

There has been several improvements made at the Home during the past year. We are now remodeling a dwelling that had greatly depreciated in value. There is much more repair work we are hoping to begin on right away. We would appreciate a visit from you, that you might see exactly what has been done, and in what way you could help in the future. It is your Home, and we are anxious for you to know more about it.

Your Superintendent pleads with all of you for a unanimous co-operation for the support of that Home. During the year we have had 28,835 days of fare, and served 86,505 meals to dependent children. We have given them every religious and educational advantage possible. We wish to, be efficient in the coming year, however, than we have in the past, and with your support and prayers we will continue to have a Home of which you will be greatly proud, and one that will meet the approval of the One above, who is the Giver of all good gifts.

Faithfully yours,

J. R. BENNETT,

Bro. C. K. Dunn, who is the Business Manager of the Free Will Baptist Press made a verbal report of the workings of the Press which is located in the town of Ayden. He told of the physical improvements that have been made within the last twelve monts; how that the floor space has been about doubled; and that new machinery has been enstalled including an up to date large cylinder press, two linotype machines are in operation, and that self feeding presses including the large cylinder press are in active operation. The office has been enabled to manufacture plates for all kinds of printing; and in a short while the office will have printed a song book from plates made in the office. The office is as well or better equipped for doing job work of any description as any office in Eastern Carolina as far as we know. We are printing several publications including S S. Quarterlies for the young people besides issuing The Free Will Baptist weekly. We invite you to come at any time and look over the plant; and we earnestly plead for your patronage from every section of the country. The property is ours and is run in the interest of all our people and for the glory of God.

REPORT OF BOARD OF SUPERANNUATION (Adopted)

We your Superannuation Board, beg to say for the lack of funds we have not been able to do any actual work other than to encourage and endeavor to get our various organizations to remember our disabled ministers. We feel that we should have a more centralized method in distributing the funds that are raised by our various conferences, Union meetings and Auxiliaries that each of our ministers might fare alike according to their needs. We recommend that the State Convention require bonding of the Superannuation Board, and then ask our auxiliaries and conferences to send their funds through this channel.

The concluding hymn was “When the roll is called up yonder.” Benediction by Rev. A. C. Armstrong of the Buncombe County Association.

THURSDAY MORNING

Met at 9:30. Song service conducted by Rev. R. N. Hinnant. Song: “When love lifted me”, was sung. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. W. E. Anderson of Durham, who read the 13th., chapter of 1 Corinthians. Prayer was made by Rev. J. H. Worley of Selma, N. C.

Mission Resolution. (Adopted).

Resolved that the North Carolina State Convention indorse the Foreign Mission program of the General Conference, and that a Secretary and Treasure be appointed from this Convention.

Rev. W. L. Moretz of Swannanoa, N. C. of the French Board Association was appointed said Secretary and Treasurer, of the Foreign Mission work.

The Boy Scouts were given a rising vote of thanks for the very manly and generous way they have served this Convention.

Eld. J. C. Griffin made a talk in the interest of the Bible School that is anticipated being run in Smithfield in the near future. Others besides Eld. Griffin made strong pleas for the School. Prof. Jesse P. Barrow spoke of how he might conduct the School that is to be started in Smithfield, as a Bible School. He spoke of a five day in the week School and other matters of note.

Pray was offered by Eld. W. E. Anderson followed by the song, "Meet me there." A collection was taken in the interest of saving the church property at Smithfield for the Convention amounting to $135.00 in cash.

A paper was read by Mrs. Katie Sawyer Jackson of Ayden, N. C. Subject: "Woman's Part in the Church of Christ." The paper showed much careful study on the part of the writer. Woman's part was very clearly shown, giving an account of the part women have played in the past in the uplift of humanity. She also clearly pointed out the mission of women in the present time and what may be expected of them as savers of our nation. The paper of Sister Jackson was highly complimented and by a vote of the body it is to appear a few times in the Free Will Baptist.

Prayer was offered by C. K. Dunn.

At the noon hour Rev. D. W. Alexander of the Central Conference delivered a telling sermon. Subject: The responsibility of the Christian to the World. Those who know Eld. Alexander may know that he pointed out very forceably the way many who profess to be Christians are letting their light shine but dimly. He showed very clearly what the Bible means by the term, "Babes in Christ." He showed beyond question who "fools are" as spoken of as such in the Scriptures. Hypocrites were handled with gloves off by the minister. His sermon was plain, simple and forcible in every detail, and was well received by a vast throng of people.

Benediction by Eld. E. T. Phillips.

OBITUARY

BRICKHOUSE.—On the Second day of June 1934 the spirit of Brother H. J. Brickhouse took its flight from the earthly house where it had resided since the sixth day of September 1901, thus making his stay on earth 32 years 8 months and 26 days. He was a son of Joseph and Susan E. Brickhouse of Columbia, N. C.

Brother "Hallet" as he was better known was converted and united with the church at Sound Side when a boy. God later called him to the Ministry. He attended school at Ayden the years of 1927 and 1928. He graduated from the Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, in 1931.

His health failed after his graduation so that he was unable to do very much in the ministerial work. He was called to serve the church in Greenville but did not serve but for a little while. He was very studious and for his age was one of the best posted men of the country. He was well versed in the Scriptures and could hold the attention of any congregation with his oratory and Scriptural presentations.

We cannot understand why one so young and with such a preparation and so much interest in the cause should be called away right in the morning of life. But "All things work together for good to them that love the Lord" (Rom. 8:28). We know that he love the Lord.

Brother W. B. Everett, who was supplying for this writer conducted the funeral in the midst of of one of the largest congregations ever assemble in this community for a funeral service, according to all reports.

As his pastor I was always glad to converse with him. I often visited the home and talked with him about the Lord and his affliction. He was always cheerful and looked on the bright side. May the Lord bless his family.

Yours in Christ,

J. C. GRIFFIN.

In the absense of Rev. J. W. Alford who was to bring a message at 11:30 o'clock, Rev. J. R. Bennett was given this time to bring a message from the Orphanage. Just before his message we were favored with a message in song by Miss Audrey Winstead, a former member of the Orphanage family. Rev. Bennett spoke of general conditions of the Home, then particularly of the beds there. He expressed a desire that this convention as a whole, as local auxiliaries and as individuals, take a part in replacing the old beds with new ones, single beds, all alike and in different lengths, suitable to the different sizes of children. The following motion was made and carried: That this Convention go on record as being in favor of Rev. Bennett's plan for replacement of beds in the Orphanage.

A motion to set aside, from the funds of the convention, enough to purchase a large size bed ($14.40), was carried. The following Ladies' Aids and individuals pledged to pay for a bed: Edgemont, Durham, N. C., St. Mary's New Bern, N. C., Bridgeton, N. C. and St Mary's in the Western Conference. Mrs. Katie Sawyer Jackson made a personal donation of $14.40 for the purchase of a bed. All delegates were asked to take the bed proposition before their respective auxiliaries, giving each an opportunity to buy a bed. An offering, amounting to $15.31 was taken for the Orphanage.

Announcements, regarding lunch, were made by the local pastor, Rev. M. C. Presscott and Mrs. J. H. Oglesby.
