REPORTS OF BOARDS AND COMMITTEES

Report of Examining Board of Ministers

We, your committee, beg leave to report that we have examined A. A. Wells of Agden, N. C., and James Daniels of Kenly, N. C. We find them orthodox and recommend that their names be enrolled on the list of ordained ministers.

W. M. HOWELL, Chm.

Report of Board for Disabled Ministers

Your Board beg to recommend that you pay to Elds. B. H. Boykin $10.00; J. W. Cox $10.00 and B. W. Tippet $10.00.

Respectfully submitted,

A. B. UTLEY,

W. T. KIRBY,

B. B. DEANS, Board.

Report of Ministerial Committee

We, the Ministerial Committee, beg leave to make the following report:

We find nothing against the Christian character of W. A. Benson.

We suggest that E. A. W. Husketh make good reasons why he does not show up at our conferences, and show what he is doing in regard to his ministerial work.

We find W. B. Leonard's Christian character good.

We are unable to learn anything concerning W. H. Cockrell.

We have adjusted the trouble between Eld. J. H. Whitley and Pleasant Hill church and the same has been made satisfactory. We recommend that Eld. Whitley be exonerated.

Respectfully submitted,

J. E. DAVIS,

B. W. TIPPETT,

J. S. COLLIER,

J. K. RUFFIN,

W. T. KIRBY.

Committee

OBITUARIES

ELD. T. H. MATTHEWS

On the 7th day of September, 1918, the death angel claimed as his victim Eld. T. H. Matthews. He was born October 9, 1830, making his stay upon earth nearly 88 years. He served as a soldier in the Civil War. After the close of the war he entered the ministry and preached for the Free Will Baptist denomination until he was overtaken by a stroke of paralysis July, 1909, which forced him to a life of inactivity, while his life still proved a benediction to many. Eld. Matthews was married to Aquilla Bass and these two were blessed with 13 children: 4 sons and 9 daughters. Two sons and five daughters are still living, besides a host of grand children and great grandchildren, to mourn their loss. Some are now serving their country in France. The writer with his family and many other friends and loved ones are consoled with the impression that the loss here is his eternal gain yonder. May his family with his many friends live so near to the Master's will that their lives may be with his after they shall have departed.

Jesus Saves

Shout the tidings far and near,
Jesus saves;
Let every tribe and nation hear,
Jesus saves;
He has bought us by his blood,
He the only Son of God,
Now invites us by his word,
Jesus saves.

Though your sins like scarlet be,
Jesus saves;
He will set the captive free,
Jesus saves;
When we reach the heavenly shore,
With all our friends, who've gone before,
We shall sing forevermore,
Jesus saves.

Written by his pastor.

N. D. WIGGS.

Ayden, N. C. Dec. 9, 1918.

OBITUARY OF ELD. W. T. JOHNSON

No man has fallen from our ranks in the past decade who will be more missed by the people of the Western Free Will Baptist Conference of North Carolina than Eld. W. T. Johnson of Goldsboro, Route 1.

When we think of Bro. Johnson, we must think of one who gave his life for the Free Will Baptist cause.

Bro. Johnson was one of our old time ministers, yet he was thoroughly saturated with that progressive spirit that it requires to move things along. He was not conservative only when conservation was necessary to sustain those principles for which he had so long fought. He was a Free Will Baptist in every sense of the word, and was always ready to give a reason for his belief.

He was not an educated man but he was well acquainted with the Bible and in spiritual things he had much understanding. In every way he was a good man and a beloved citizen. His life was a blessing to all who knew him and his death was a personal loss to his friends.

Bro. Johnson gave his life to God at an early age. He was ordained a preacher July 22, 1888. He was about 21 years of age when he began to preach the Gospel. He died at the age of 51 years, making a total of about 30 years that he carried the cross for Jesus Christ. He still lives in our lives and heaven itself will only reveal the power and the influence of this good and noble man. He will shine with resplendent glory in that land to which he has gone for "they that turn many to righteousness shall shine as the stars of the firmament forever and ever". He went forth with weeping sowing precious seeds, and he will return bearing his sheaves with him. Like the good old apostle, he fought a good fight, he finished his course, he kept the faith, hence he is gone to receive a crown of righteousness, which his Lord that he served so faithfully, has prepared for him. Bro. Johnson is survived by several brothers and sisters. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and an affectionate and loving father. Let us remember the widow and children in this life and prepare to meet Bro. Johnson in the glory world beyond.
