Report of Christian Workers Summer School.

A Christian Worker's Summer School was held in the Free Will Baptist Seminary, August 4-8, with a total registration of 75. This being the first session the registration far exceeded our expectation. The results of the school was indeed gratifying.

The faculty was composed of M. B. Prescott, R. F. Pittman, L. E. Ballard, A. H. Outlaw, and Thos. E. Beaman. The lecturers were: Hon. S. J. Everett, Dr. C. Banks McNairy, Prof. W. F. Walters, Rev. J. L. Welch, and Prof. R. B. Spencer.

The courses of instruction were as follows: Bible lectures on the Church, by J. L. Welch; Sunday School Organizations and Administration, by Thos. E. Beaman; Free Will Baptist League Work, by L. E. Ballard; Evangelism, by R. F. Pittman; Church Organization, by A. H. Outlaw.

The evening lectures by Hon. S. J. Everett, C. B. McNairy, Prof. W. F. Walters and Prof. R. B. Spencer were well attended by the people of the town of Ayden and community, and were indeed a great source of instruction.

This Summer School has been established as a permanent school. We are to have a larger and more thorough course next term which term will also be longer, probably two weeks instead of one week.

The said Summer School is under the control of a joint committee of the Ministerial Association and the Board of Trustees of the school.

We are asking this Conference to endorse the said School and that the preachers and all churches workers who possibly can attend the next session.

THOS. E. BEAMAN, Secretary.

The above report was adopted:

Elder B. B. Deans was made Treasurer pro tem for the present, as the treasurer was not able to be present. The Finance Committee was directed to settle with him.

Temperance Report. (Adopted.)

We, the committee on Temperance beg leave to submit the following:
Whereas, There are other things that destroy and demoralize as well as strong drink.

Therefore, be it Resolved, 1. That we deplore the general tendency of the age to disgrace the Sabbath Day.

2. That we do not patronize or frequent the race track, ball games, or any place of sinful amusement.

3. That we keep continually before our people the need of obeying the law, and impress upon them that one can not be a good citizen, much more a Christian, if he does not keep the law of the land.

B. B. DEANS,
G. W. FERRELL, Committee.

Prof. K. S. Wuest, principal of the Bible Department of the Seminary, was present and made a very impressive address on the inconsistencies that exist among professing Christians, showing why it is so or why the Christian does not enjoy the fullness of the blessings that he should. The life of the worldly ungodly person is represented by the caterpillar crawling around on the ground with nothing to be admired about him but rather repulsive. The Christian life may be compared to the butterfly that has been transformed from the caterpillar state to the glorious state of the butterfly. The reason the person changed into the new life does not always soar like the butterfly is because he has will power, and can be led by Satan to commit sins that mar his peace and happiness.

Dr. M. Hinnant of the Orphanage Board made a strong plea for the Orphanage. He also strongly urged the importance of supporting the Superannuates of our denomination. The Lord knows that we are not doing our duty along that line. Let us arouse and raise a sum sufficient to at least give those who have worn themselves out in the cause a reasonable allowance.

SATURDAY EVENING.

Conference met at 1.15. Prayer by S. H. Styron.

Report of Educational Committee. (Adopted.)

Realizing that spirituality and intellectuality are inseparable,

Be it Resolved, 1. That all parents be urged to place only the most wholesome reading matter before their children, and that we protest against the use of over exaggerated fairy stories in our public schools.

2. That we encourage the dignity of honest manual work, and that we give to our children of the rural districts such advantages as far as possible as will be conducive to the making of country life more interesting.

4. That the examining board of this Conference be required to prepare a list of questions annually to which all applicants for ordination shall give written answers, and shall be required to answer correctly 85 per cent of all questions.

5. That we as a denomination keep constantly before our people the absolute need of our denominational school, and that we make every sacrifice reasonable to complete the college at Ayden, N. C., and equip the same with a faculty of competent Christian men and women.
