1. That we as ministers of the Gospel, be governed by the spirit of brotherly love and Christian affection; refraining from all open and undue criticism.

2. That the membership of our denomination refrain from participating in things that do not contribute to wholesome thought and discreet Christian conduct.

3. That as a conference we endeavor to build up a spirit of good will by showing Christian courtesy to all people; and that we emphasize our church as a medium through which our church services, and the work of our auxiliary societies function toward magnifying Christ and his kingdom rather than the tenets of our church.
