REPORT OF EDUCATIONAL COMMITTEE

Seeing the need of a unified effort of our church in our Educational program, We therefore submit the following:

(1) That we stand behind the efforts and support the work of Bro. C. F. Bowen in training our young people through the Young People's League and Auxiliary.

(2) That we encourage at least one person from each of our churches to attend the training camp sponsored by the Leagues at Camp Leach.

(3) That we co-operate with the national Board of Education in their efforts to begin an Educational Institution for our church.

R. N. Hinnant,

G. C. Joyner.

REPORT OF THE AUXILIARY COMMITTEE (ADOPTED)

We your committee on Auxiliary Work, wish to submit the following report.

(1) W. M. S. The work of our good women certainly deserves the recognition of this honorable Association; their earnest endeavors will prove very profitable to our denomination as a whole.

(2) S. S. Surely there is no greater auxiliary in our churches today than our Sunday Schools. Its work has grown by leaps and bounds during the past few years.

We appreciate the literature being offered by our own press since it is more like the literature we feel that our people should use.

(3) Of all the organizations that compose our church we certainly know that our Free Will Baptist Leagues are among the greatest. The work of this fine auxiliary is spreading throughout the South Land, and is becoming more and more the best opportunity for the training of the Free Will Baptist youth. Pray for our work.

Mrs. C. G. Pope,

Clarence Bowen,

Committee.

TEMPERANCE RESOLUTIONS (ADOPTED)

We your committee on temperance beg leave to submit the following:

First. We look with horror upon the desecration of God's Holy day. We are told plainly by the finger of God upon Mt. Sinai, "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy." We hold that Sunday baseball, excursions to seaside resorts and other watering places where the sexes mingle in indecent apparel, is disgraceful to humanity and a crying sin against the God of heaven, who can not look upon sin with the least degree of allowance.

Second. We consider all gambling machines, roulette-wheels, punch boards and all like contrivances as a system of high-way robbery. We hold that betting on horse races, ball games of every description elections and the like are exceedingly sinful and should be frowned down upon by individuals, and that courts should fine such violators of law and order that the great sin of gambling may be greatly abated.

Third. We hold that the sale of intoxicating beverages, either legal or illegal, to be the most blighting curse that is affecting our land today. Who can indulge in unclean things and be innocent? We know that we are living in a polluted land where our lawmakers set up a business that is damning both the bodies and souls of men, that is making our highway more deadly than the battlefields where the groans of dying thousands are heard. How inconsistent is a people who will set up a business that requires an army of several thousand men to guard our highways where over 6,000 arrests have been made for drunken driving at a cost of many thousand dollars. How pitiful the sum of revenue derived from the sale of this poison liquid, compared with the death, crime and misery which this legalized traffic has a great part in inflicting.

Fourth. Shall we as men and women, who claim to love our homes, our church and our God, go to the polls in November and vote for men who will endeavor to put this curse of the A. B. C. Stores in every county in the State? God forbid that we should be participants in such an effort; and if our next legislature should leave the matter up to the county or state, may God help us when ever the test comes to vote for the good of our homes, our counties or our state, knowing that a vote against this abominable traffic is well pleasing in the sight of Him with whom we have to deal.

E. T. Phillips,
J. A. Hales,
W. E. Anderson,
Comittee.

OBITUARIES

WALL.—The lack of proper data makes it impossible for the committee to write a complete obituary of the late Rev. N. B. Wall. We can say, however, that he was an active minister of the Free Will Baptist church, and a member of the Western Conference for a number of years. He was not only a pastor of churches, but also was interested in other phases of the church work. He was an ardent supporter of the F. W. B. doctrine at all times, and though not so well prepared as some of his co-laborers, yet he always exhibited a spirit of faithfulness that our younger men would do well to emulate.

May God bless his memory and perpetuate it in the channel of his posterity, and may God give us more such faithful men as he was is our prayer.

Written by,

Rev. S. H. Styron.

MORRIS.—Rev. James R. Morris was born Sept 22, 1856 and died Dec. 24, 1935. He was married three times. His first wife's maiden name was Rhodie Ann Baker. She lived about 17 years after their marriage and to that union were born eight children, five of which are still living. I do not know the date of their marriage, probably sometime about 1878. His second marriage was to Miss Martha Manning, who lived about 15 or 16 years after the marriage. To this union were born eight children of which four survive. The last marriage was to a Mrs. Martha Ballard, who lived about 22 years afterward and preceded him to the grave about 10 days. There were no children of this last marriage. He was converted while quite young and united with Marsh Swamp church. His membership was at Pleasant Plain at death.

Father was a native of Wilson Co., but spent practically the last half of his life in Johnson Co. He was never considered a great preacher, in the sense of which most people think of greatness, however, he did serve several churches until his health prevented, during a period of some over 30 years. He never asked to be placed on the retired or disabled list of ministers, however, his service was rendered to the very best of his ability, freely, and he often expressed a desire to be able to do more. He was what would be termed an illiterate minister, tho he was progressive and always took the side of progress for the Cause.

Should there be further information desired I shall be glad to furnish it if possible.

Fraternally yours,
E. C. Morris.
